DOUBLE

The 1961 Yellow-jacket annual staff sincerely dedicates

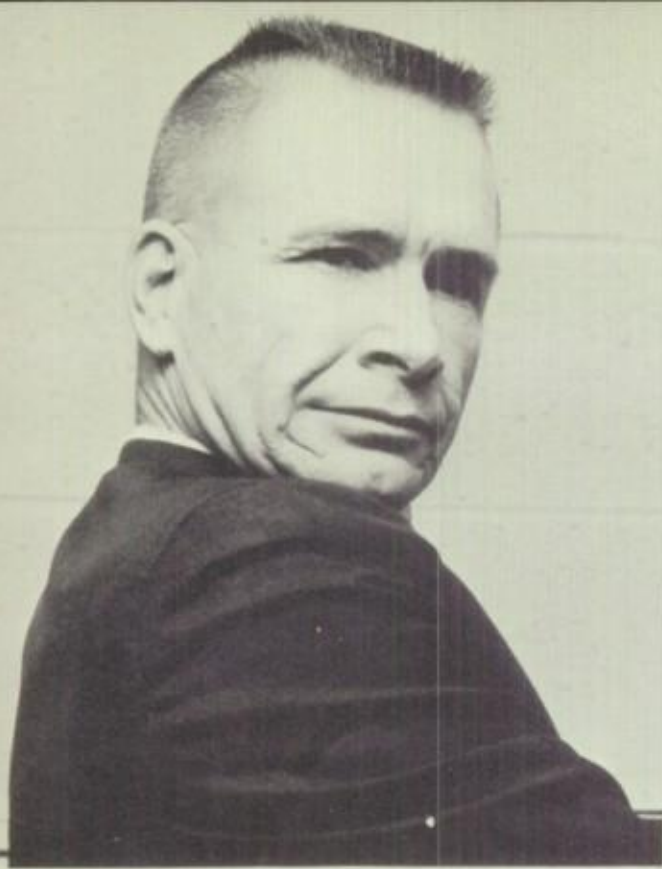

Mr. Donald Hubbard for his devotion and enthusiasm during the 16 years in which he has unselfishly prepared students for the future.

DEDICATION

this edition of the annual to:

Mr. Bill Jensen, Choctaw's outstanding coach, who has been with us the past three years. We greatly appreciate the time and effort given in the school's behalf.

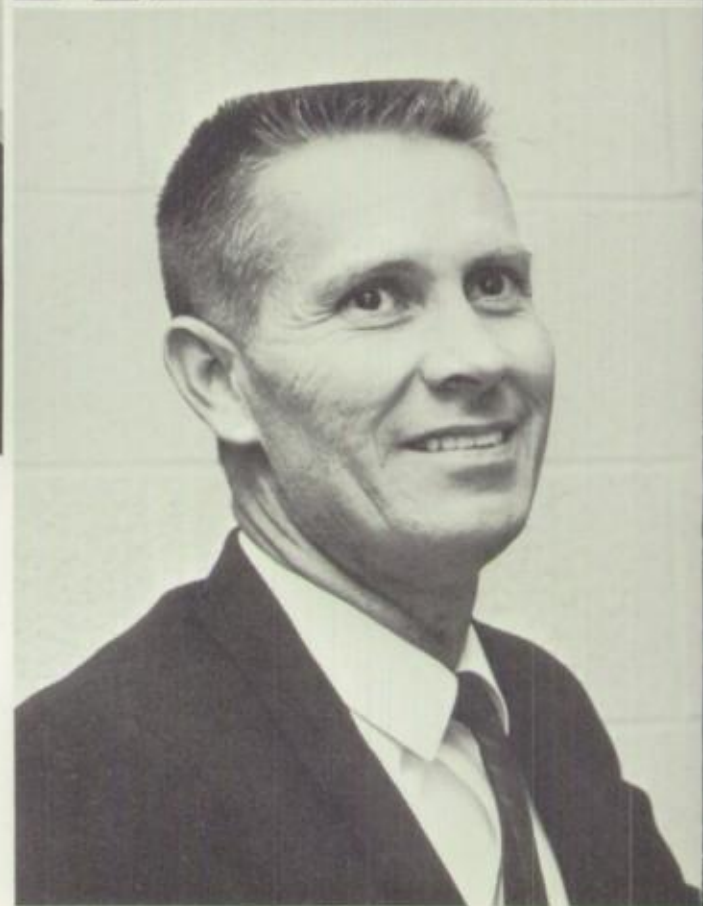

W. W. Tarkington, member

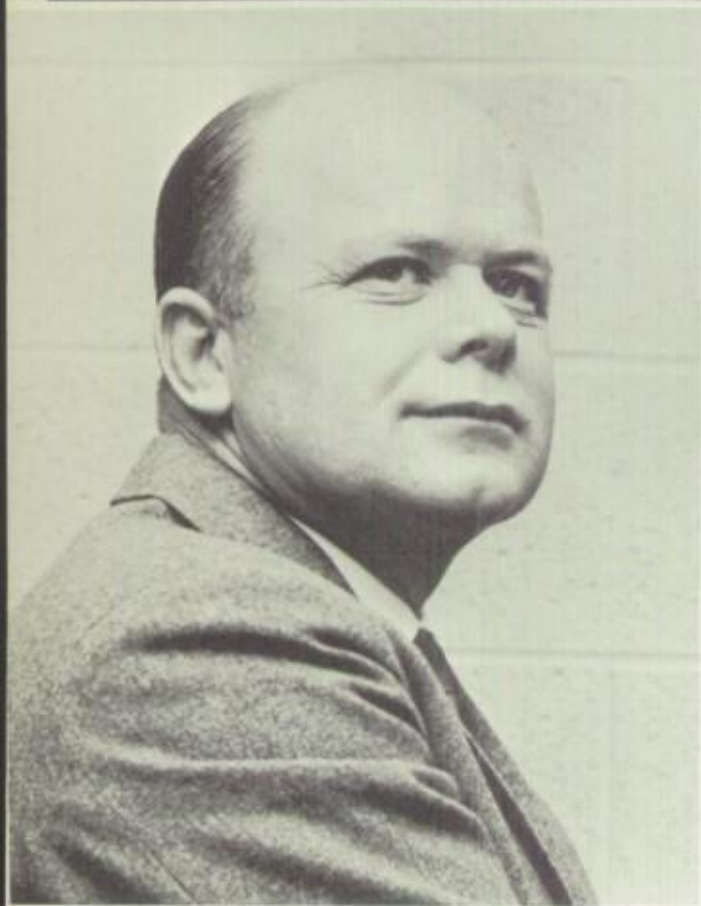

Mark Breed, Vice-President

Joe Hickman, President

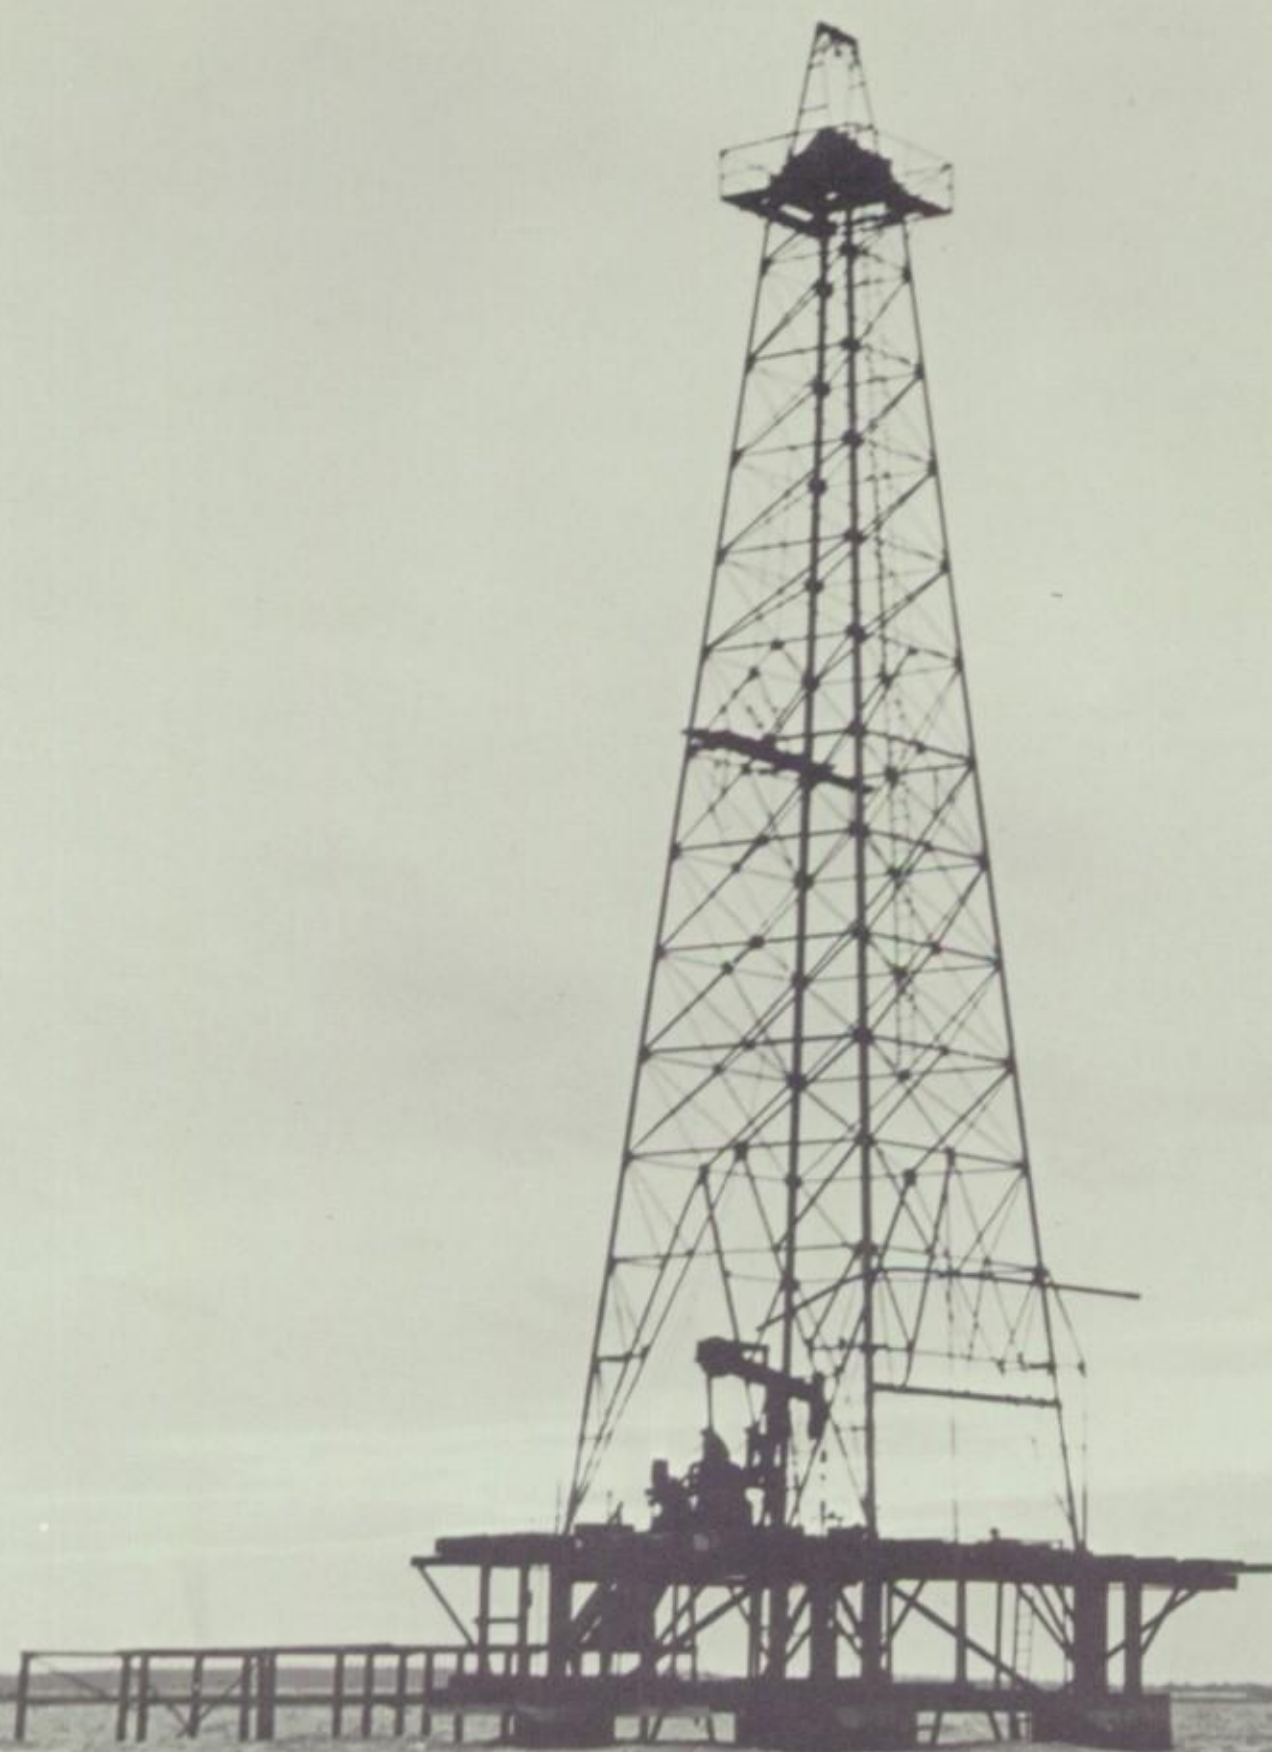

Phil Ogee, Clerk

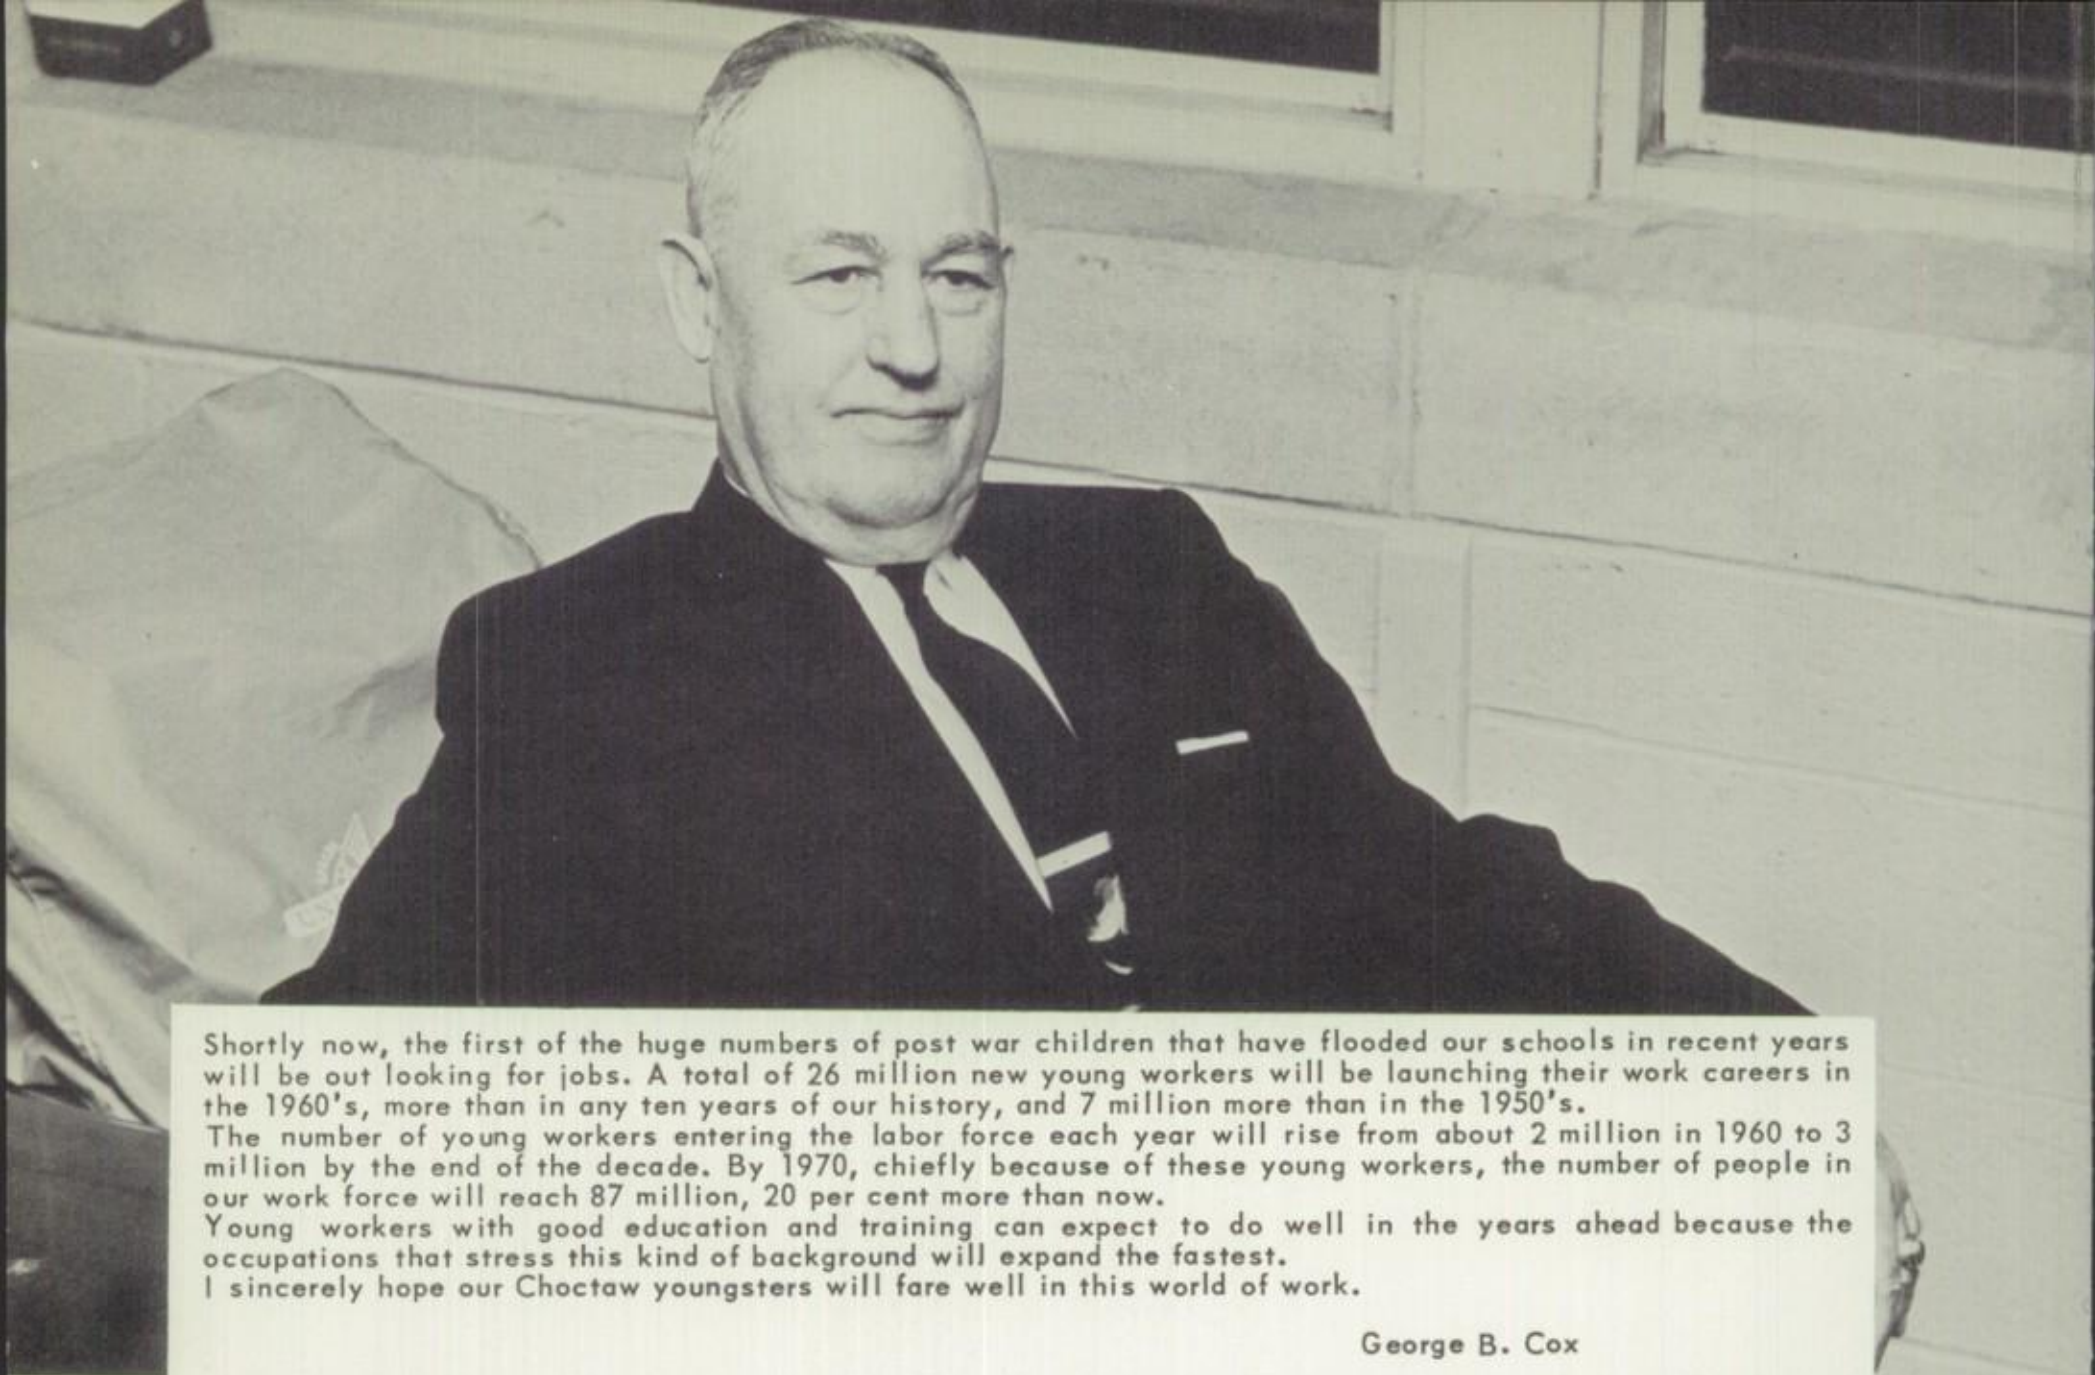

Junius Whisenant, member

Handling the affairs of the school and providing excellent leadership are the Choctaw School Board members and Mr. George Cox.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

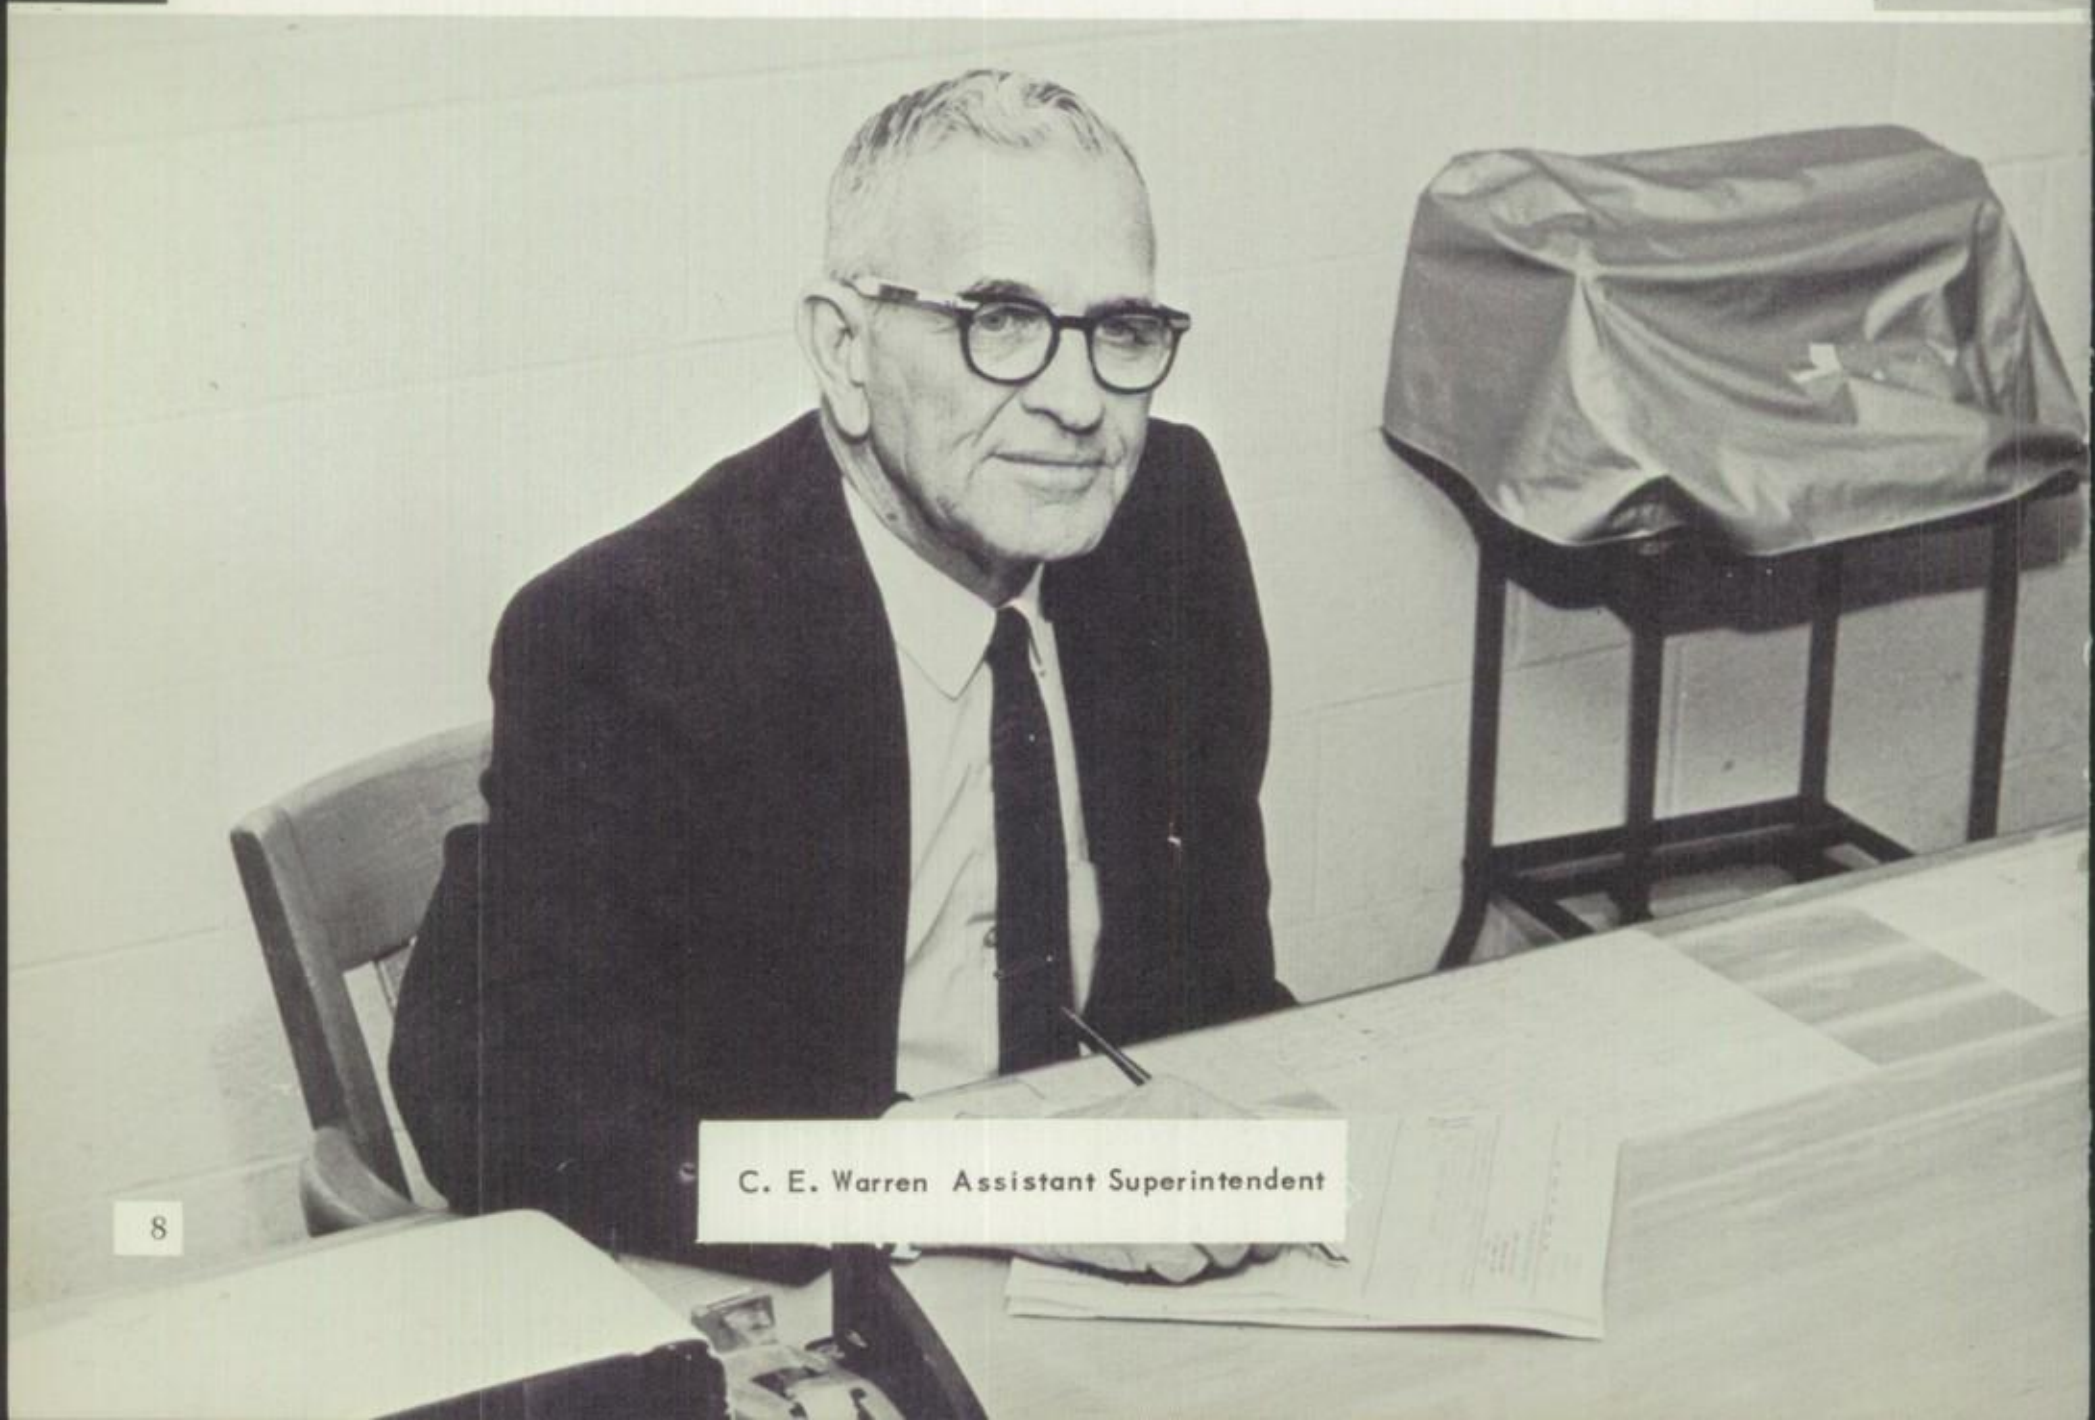

Shortly now, the first of the huge numbers of post war children that have flooded our schools in recent years will be out looking for jobs. A total of 26 million new young workers will be launching their work careers in the 1960's, more than in any ten years of our history, and 7 million more than in the 1950's.

The number of young workers entering the labor force each year will rise from about 2 million in 1960 to 3 million by the end of the decade. By 1970, chiefly because of these young workers, the number of people in our work force will reach 87 million, 20 per cent more than now.

Young workers with good education and training can expect to do well in the years ahead because the occupations that stress this kind of background will expand the fastest.

I sincerely hope our Choctaw youngsters will fare well in this world of work.

George B. Cox

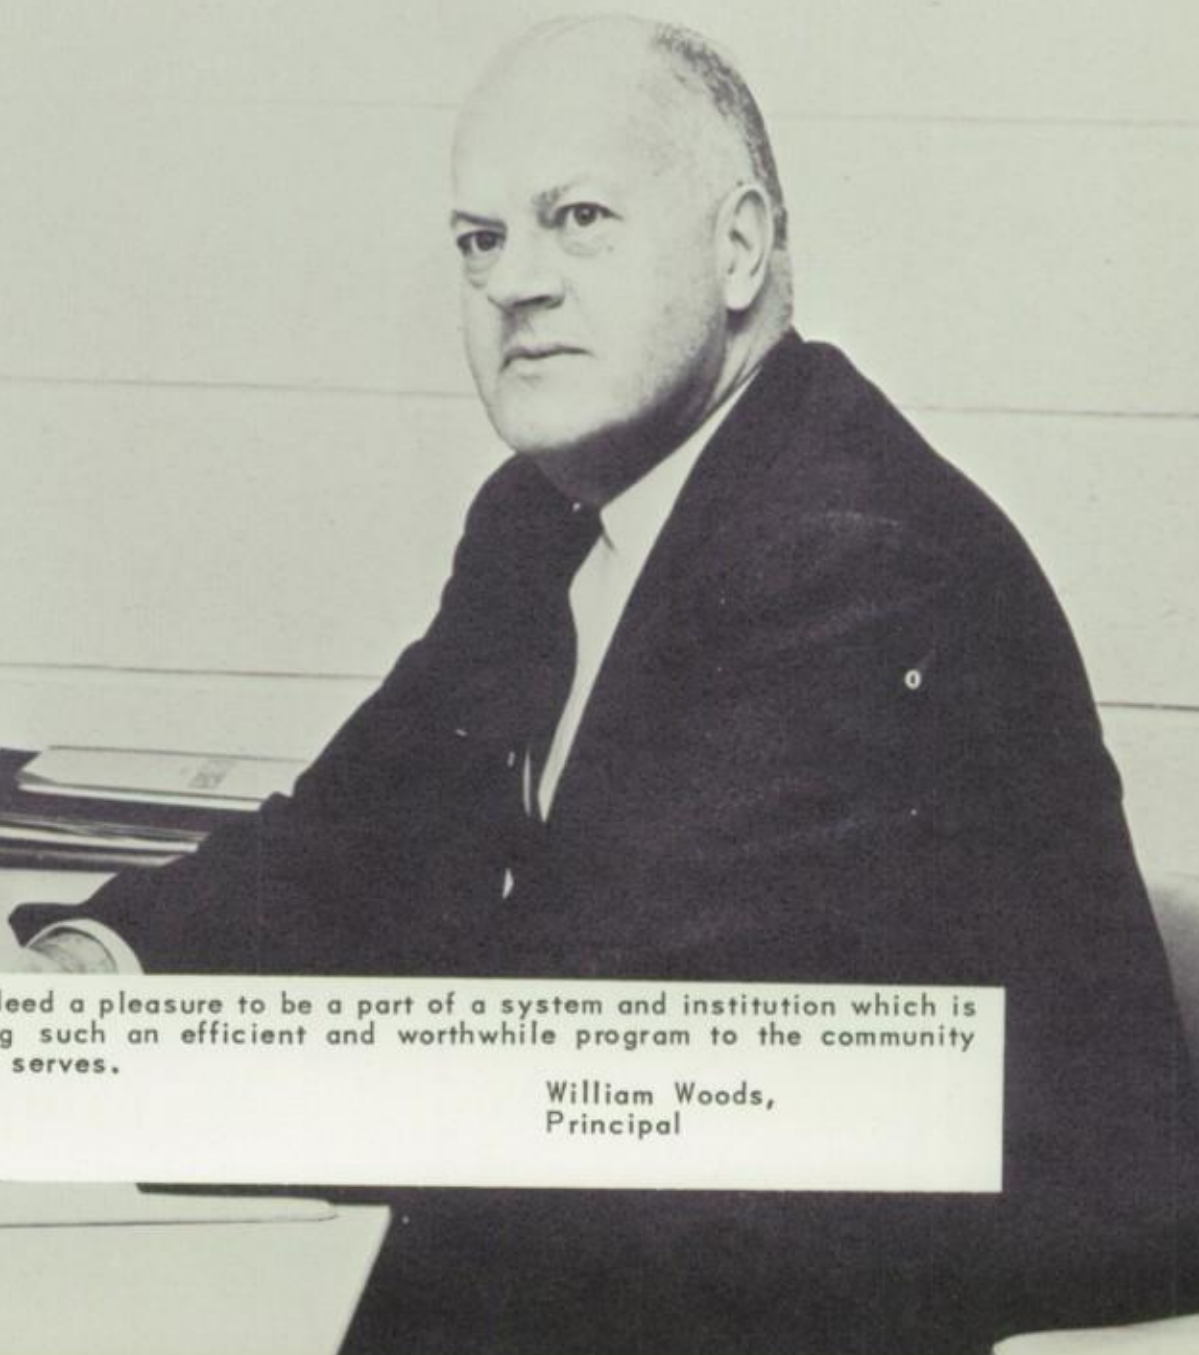

C. E. Warren Assistant Superintendent

*Best Wishes
Bill Draper*

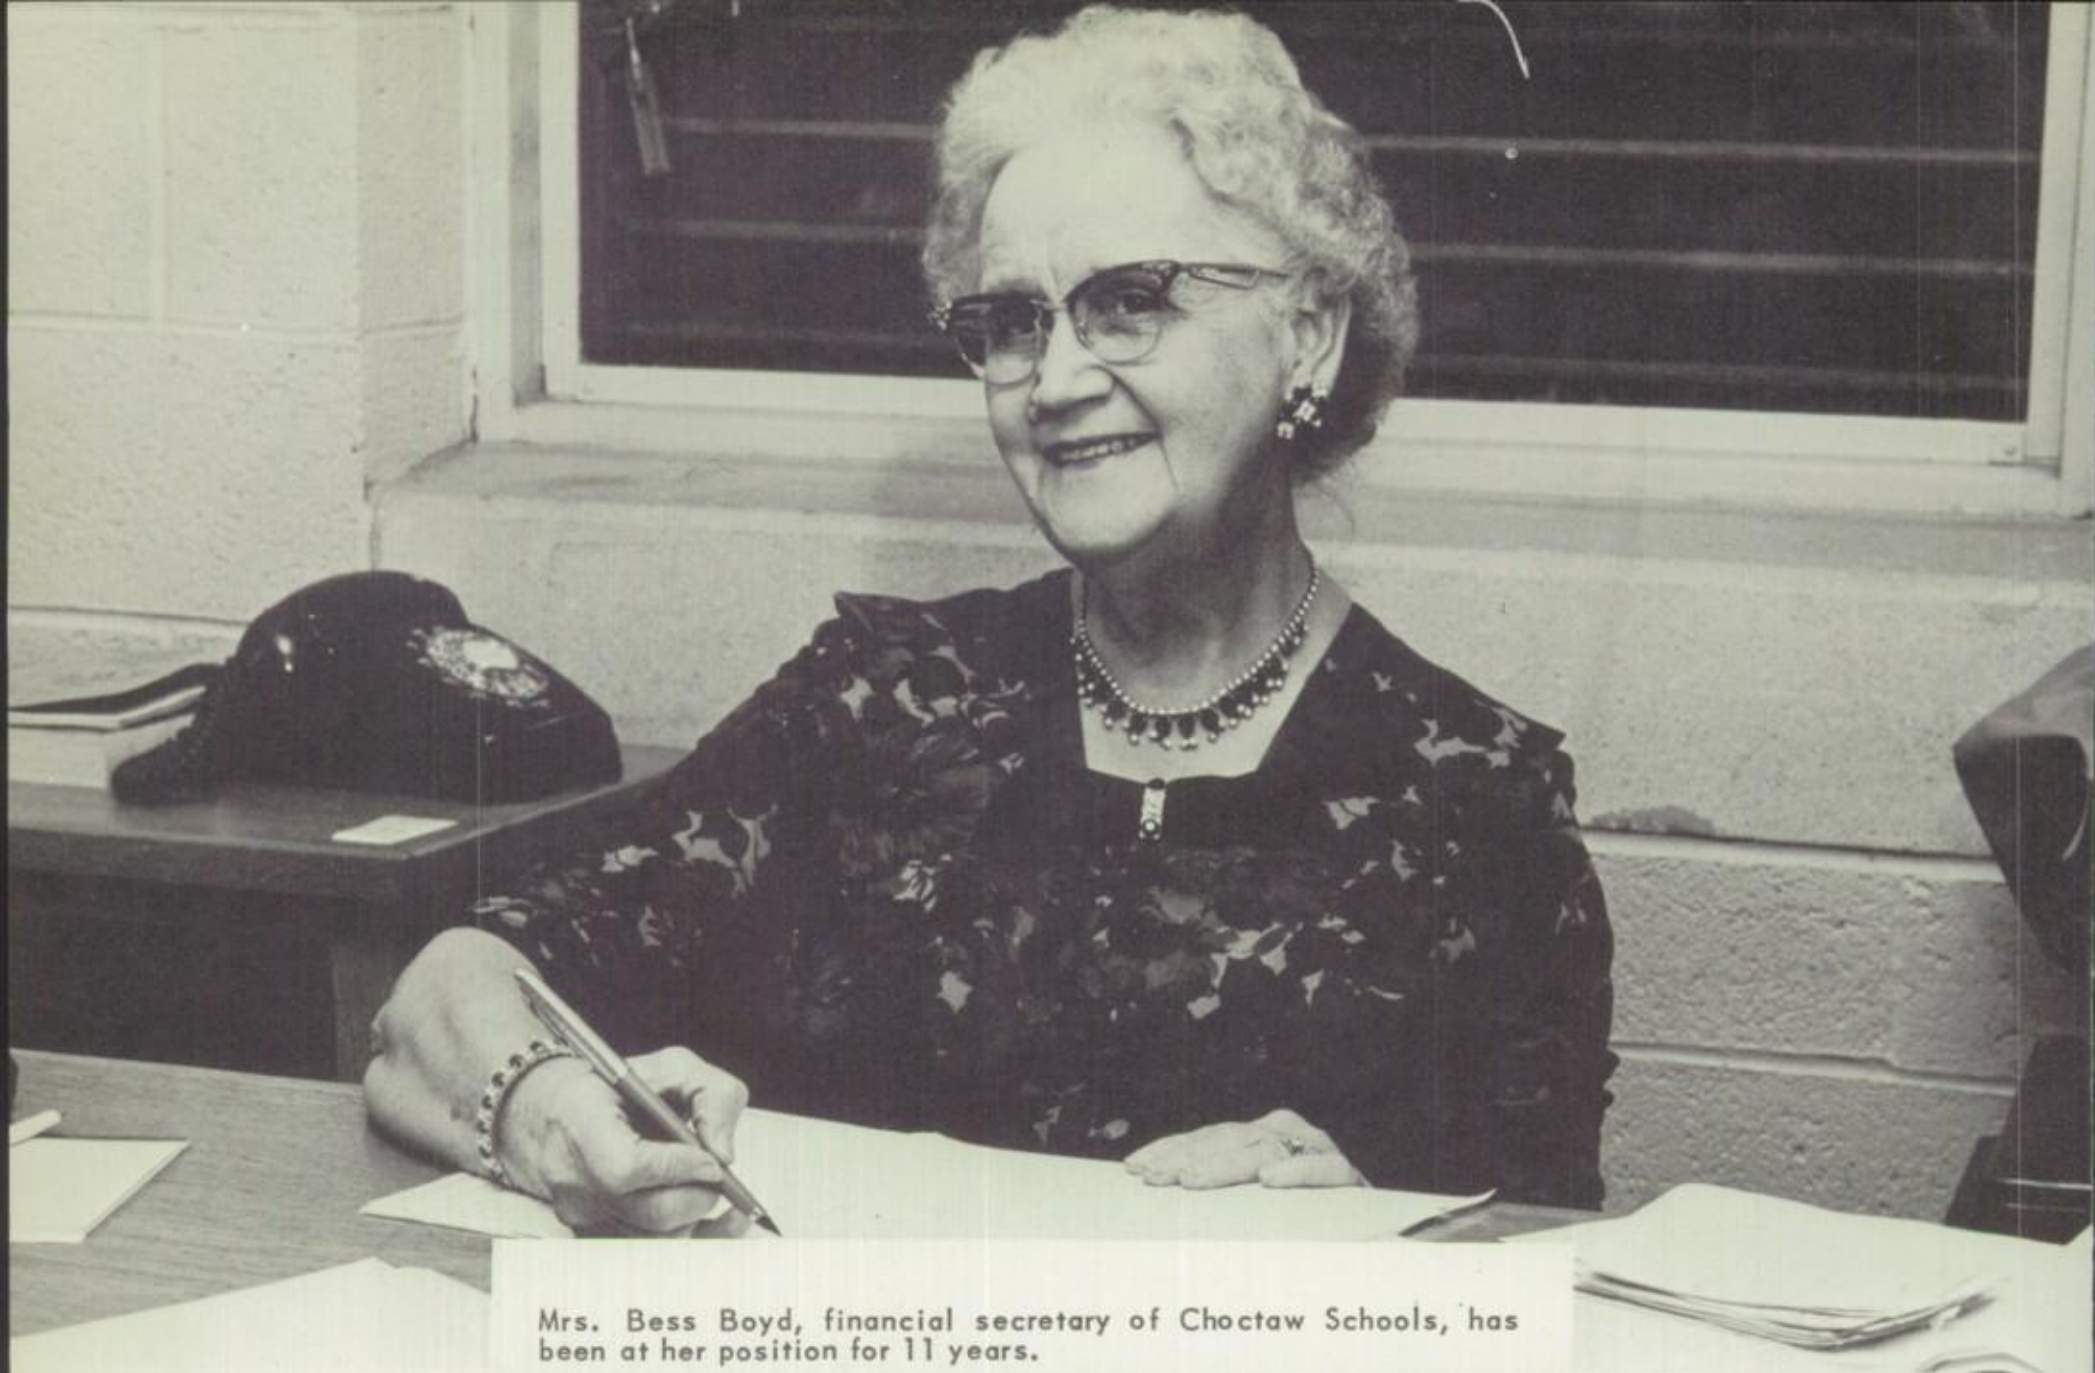

For several years a certain group of so-called educational critics has seemed to take delight in condemning the American High School and in holding up to criticism the students thereof. My experiences as Principal of the Choctaw School have proved how unjust these charges are. The faculty and students at Choctaw are a most cordial and cooperative group. I consider my work at Choctaw this year the most enjoyable of my career, thanks to all of you wonderful people.

Bill T. Draper,
Principal

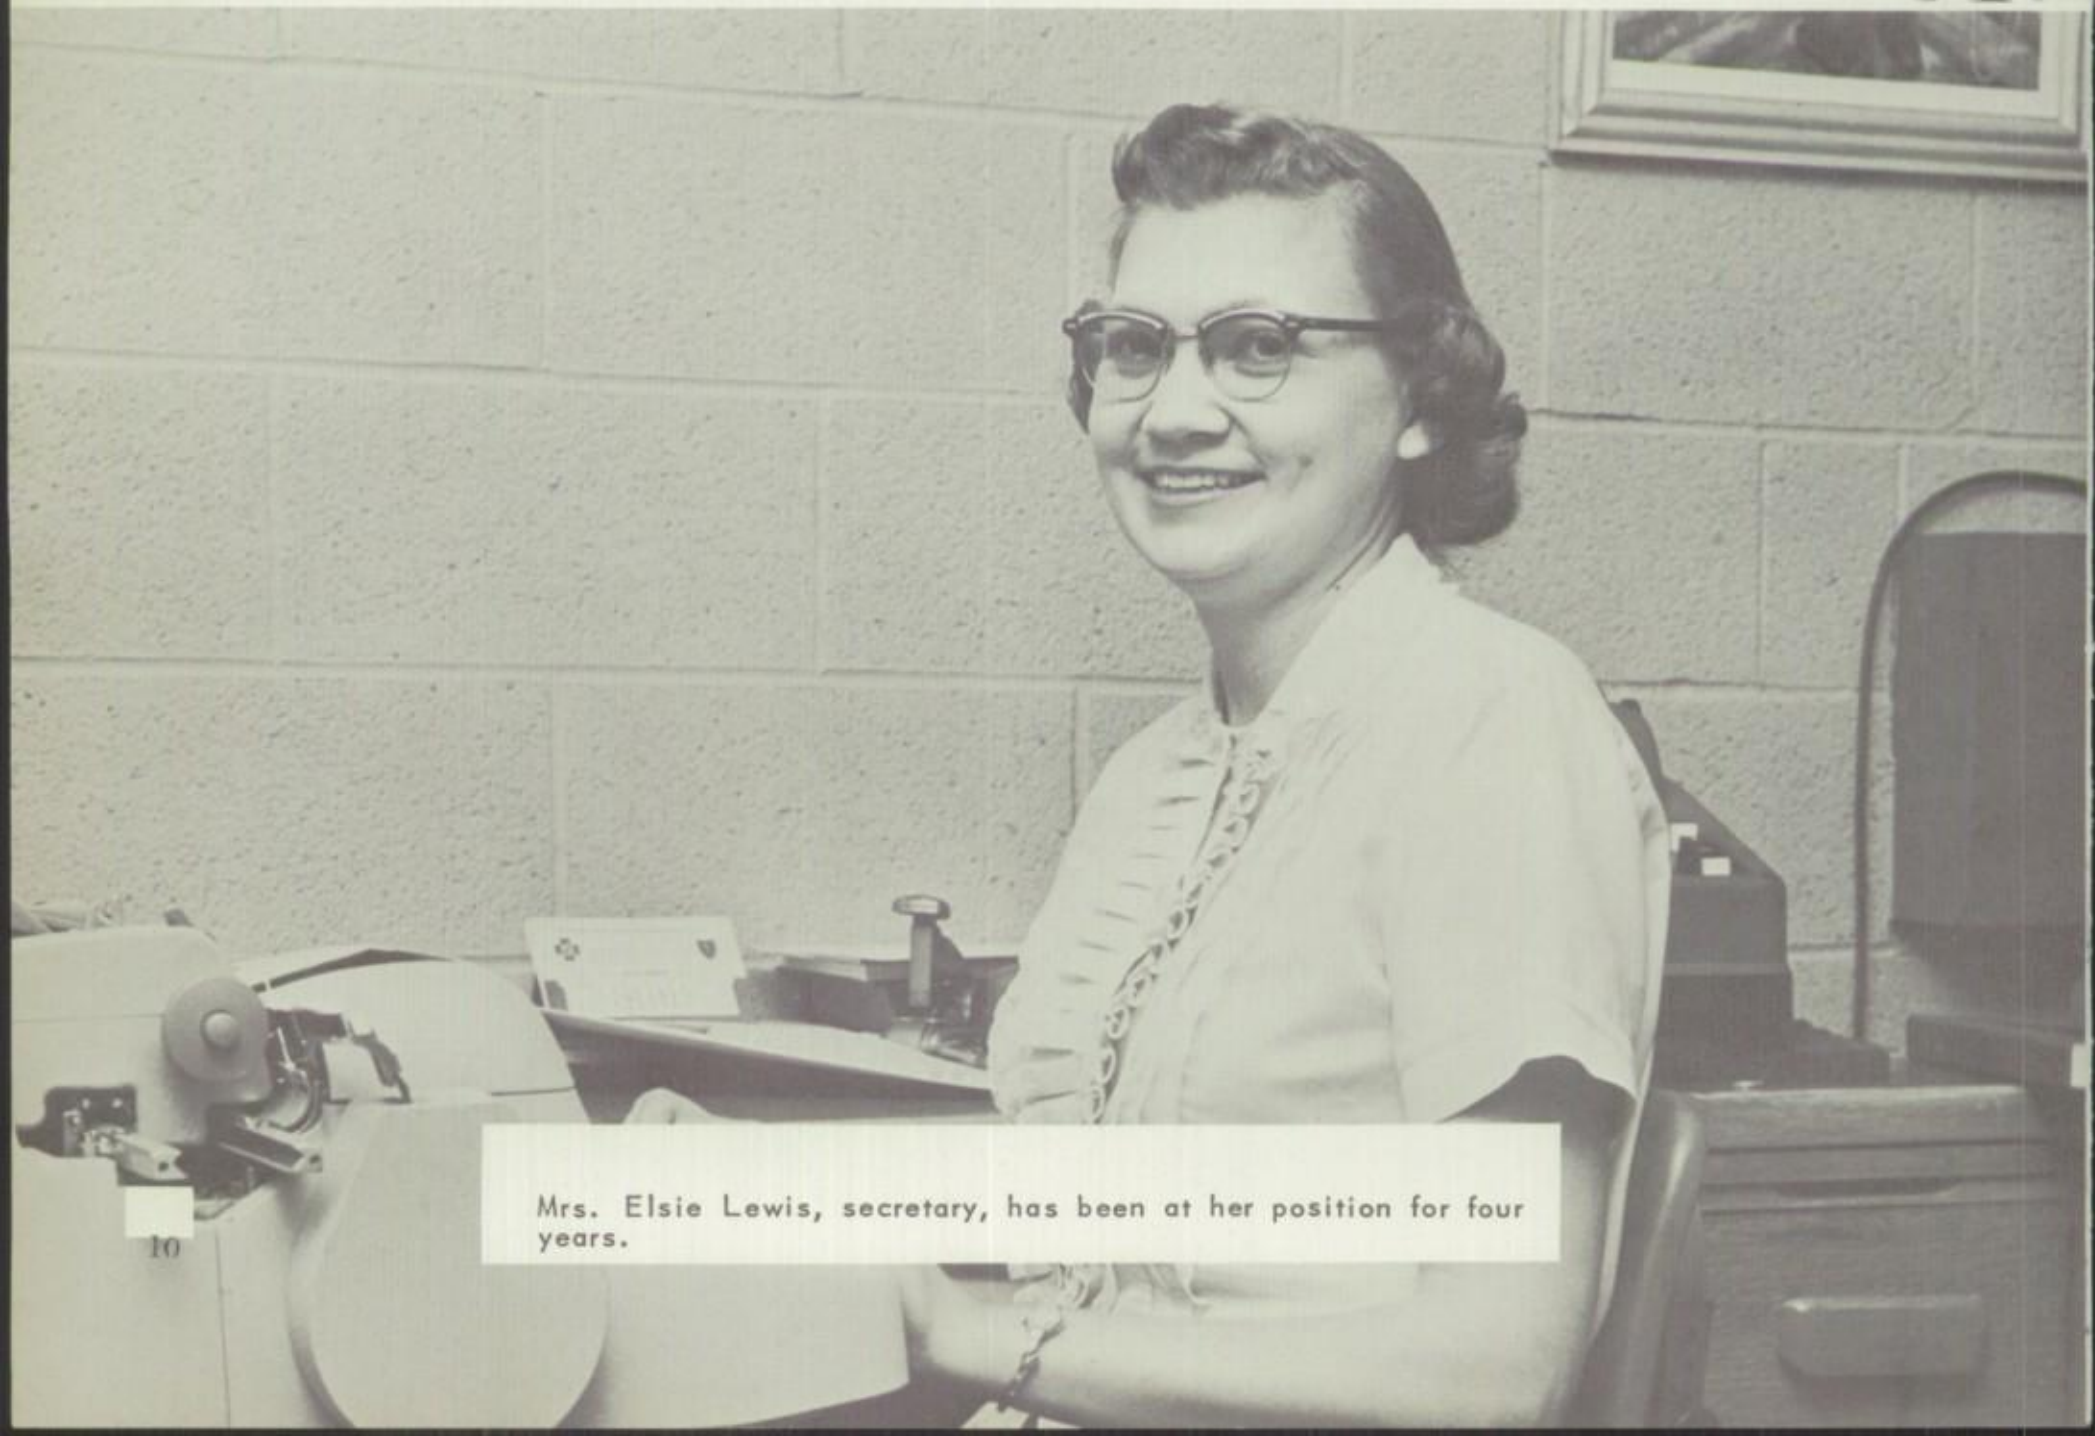

It is indeed a pleasure to be a part of a system and institution which is rendering such an efficient and worthwhile program to the community which it serves.

William Woods,
Principal

Mrs. Bess Boyd, financial secretary of Choctaw Schools, has been at her position for 11 years.

A tall, slender lattice tower stands vertically in the center of the frame, topped with a radio antenna. It is surrounded by a network of horizontal and diagonal power lines that crisscross the sky. The sky is filled with soft, grey clouds. At the bottom, a dark silhouette of a landscape is visible, including a small building and some distant structures.

ORGANIZATIONS

LETTERMEN---Composing the Letterman's Club are these 28 Choctaw athletes. From left to right on the first row are: Coach Bill Jensen, sponsor, Tim Adams, Carrol Elmore, Doug Martindale, Grant Curry, Jerry Murray, Bob Temple, James Hutchinson, and Landis Denley. Second row: Leroy Locke, Donnie George, Jerry Smith, Hayes Poindexter, Donnie Webb, Ronnie Ogee, Joe Boone, and Jackie Vessels. Third Row: John Stewart, Wayne Brewer, Bill Young, Pete Clements, and Richard Ramer. Fourth row: B. A. Sloan, Jerry Stephens, Gene Brown, Gip Duggan, Butch Shelby, Johnny Curry, and John Atteberry.

LETTERMEN off to letter are Ronnie Ogee, Jr.; Scott Ogee, Sr.; Harold Cole, Sr.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

BAND

'FROZEN' (and in this case literally) in formation, the Yellow-jackets' Marching Band with Linda James, drum majorette, at the helm agreed to suit up for pictures outside on one of the coldest days of the year. Soon after the picture was snapped, the chilled bandmen dashed to the confines of a warm band room.

THIS IS A STICK UP -- With arms in the air and poised for action, Mr. Forest Lewis, band director, snaps the band to attention for the next number. Mr. Lewis readied the band for numerous appearances at football games and parades during the year.

Margret Grinslade

Janice Ream

Joan Whisenant

Gloria Breed

Freda King

STEPPING OUT as she did during halftime marching appearances, Linda James, senior, exhibits the form seen so often at the front of the Pride of Choctaw Marching Band. After serving as majorette in her junior year, Linda moved up to drum majorette for the year 1960-61.

Barbara Hester

SAY AH! -- With mouths open the Mixed Chorus blares out with a Christmas carol, although some of the members fail to get into the swing of things. The Mixed Chorus sang carols in the Christmas program.

WHAT'S WRONG HERE; there aren't any male students in the photo. That's only because it's the girls Glee Club.

ONE of the highlights of the Junior High Choir was the participation in the annual Christmas program. The choir, 26 voices strong, is composed of seventh, eighth and ninth grade students. The choir is under the direction of Miss Gibson.

CHOIR OFFICERS are (first row) Janice Jenks, Jerrie Wiggins, and Glenda Sexton. Second row: Melinda Miller, Veronica Williams, and Delores Hill. Third row: Miss Gibson and Pat Sprinkle.

HEADING the Nicoma Park Choir as officers are Carolyn Muse, Georgia Parrish, Darla Russell, and Linda Holloway.

DUO PIANISTS---Striking the '88' with pride are the accompanists for musical groups, Linda Fox and Jeanie Hickman.

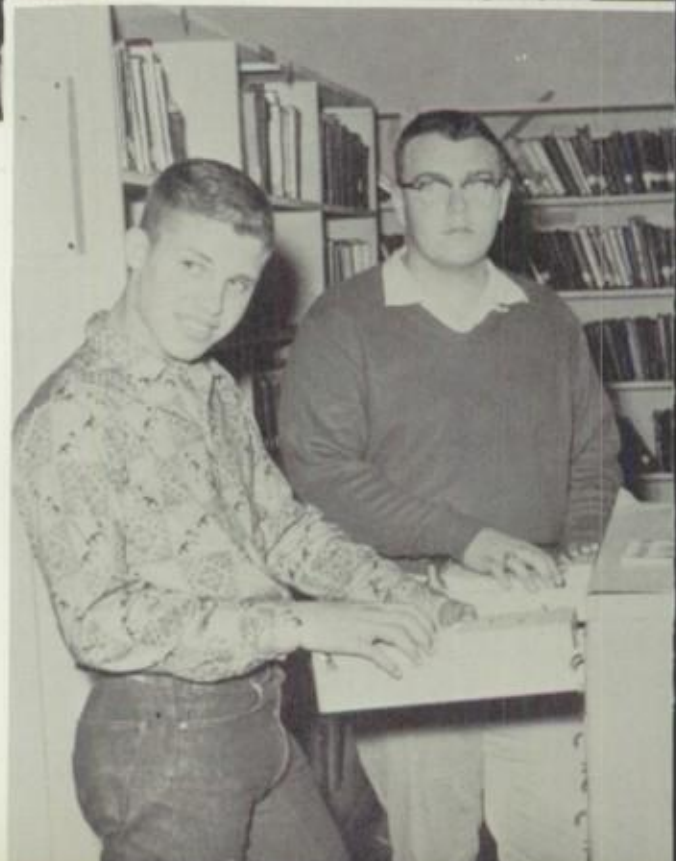

LIBRARY SCIENCE

FUTURE LIBRARIANS---Working under the guidance of Mrs. George Cox, these budding librarians make up the Library Science classes.

SEARCHING for the book card, Mike Truel and Darrell Endsley assist two students in checking out a book.

CARD FILING---Clyde Rooms and Howard Linn check the card files.

FUTURE POLITICIANS? — Getting a background for governmental proceedings, this group of budding senators handles the affairs of the student body. With representatives from every class and organization the Student Council sponsors such activities as regular movies and the annual 'Jackets Jamboree.' The organization consists of: (standing left to right) Ronald Toland, Carole Elmore, Jerry Dixon, Larry Williamson, Ronnie Ogee, Donnie Webb, Walter McCracken, Bill Young. Fourth row: Barbara Davidson, Shirley White, Linda Maynard, Barbara Hester, Robert DeFilippo, Fred Irwin, Edward White, Sharon Goodwin. Third row: Joyce Webber, Harrietta Sample, Betty Cantrell, Billye Easley, Jeanne Brown, Linda Shannon, Janice Jenks. Second row: Linda James, Elizabeth Hinchee, Liz Wasson, Betty Sexton, Barbara Floyd, Donna Whitaker. First row: B. A. Sloan, Linda Fox, Loyd Allen, Donna Chambers, Janet Weems.

STUDENT COUNCIL

GOING SOME PLACE? — In this case S. C. personnel load up for the trip to the State Convention at Weatherford. Acting as bellhops are B. A. Sloan and Loyd Allen. Wonder if they got a tip?

EXPECTING SANTA, these Student Council officers trim the Christmas tree used in the annual Christmas program. During the Yule season the Student Council decorated the school in traditional and seasonal regalia.

SPONSOR of the Student Council is Mrs. George Cox, who organized the Choctaw governing body.

IN MEMORY OF MR. C. E. WARREN

OUR BALANCE WHEEL IS MISSING

"Dear Lord, may I talk to You
For just a tiny minute.
Because, you see, now heaven has
Our special Loved One in it.

Tender, loving Hands
Reached down from above
And took from our presence
Someone we love.

He was always so busy,
So willing to do.
We know that in heaven
He'll be helpful too.

His quiet, subtle humor,
His soft, easy step,
We won't be forgetting
But after we've wept.

We'll look at Your side, Lord
And be able to see
That You needed Mr. Warren
To be there with Thee.

And now, Lord, I'm coming
To the favor I'd ask. . . .
Would you mind always seeing
That he has a task?

You won't think me bold, Lord
If I suggest to You
To give Mr. Warren
A great deal to do.

Could You spare a desk and pencil
In a corner of Gloryland?
And could there be some boys and girls
In a Little Angel Band?

He loves children all ages,
From cradle to college.
And for their many problems
He has wisdom and knowledge.

He's happiest when working
With children and school
Using just understanding for his main tool.

When Your "Littlest Angel"
Gets "Out of line"
Just send him to "Tuck" Warren
And his halo will shine.

He won't be really harsh
But just firm and fair.
He always finds a way
To make children care.

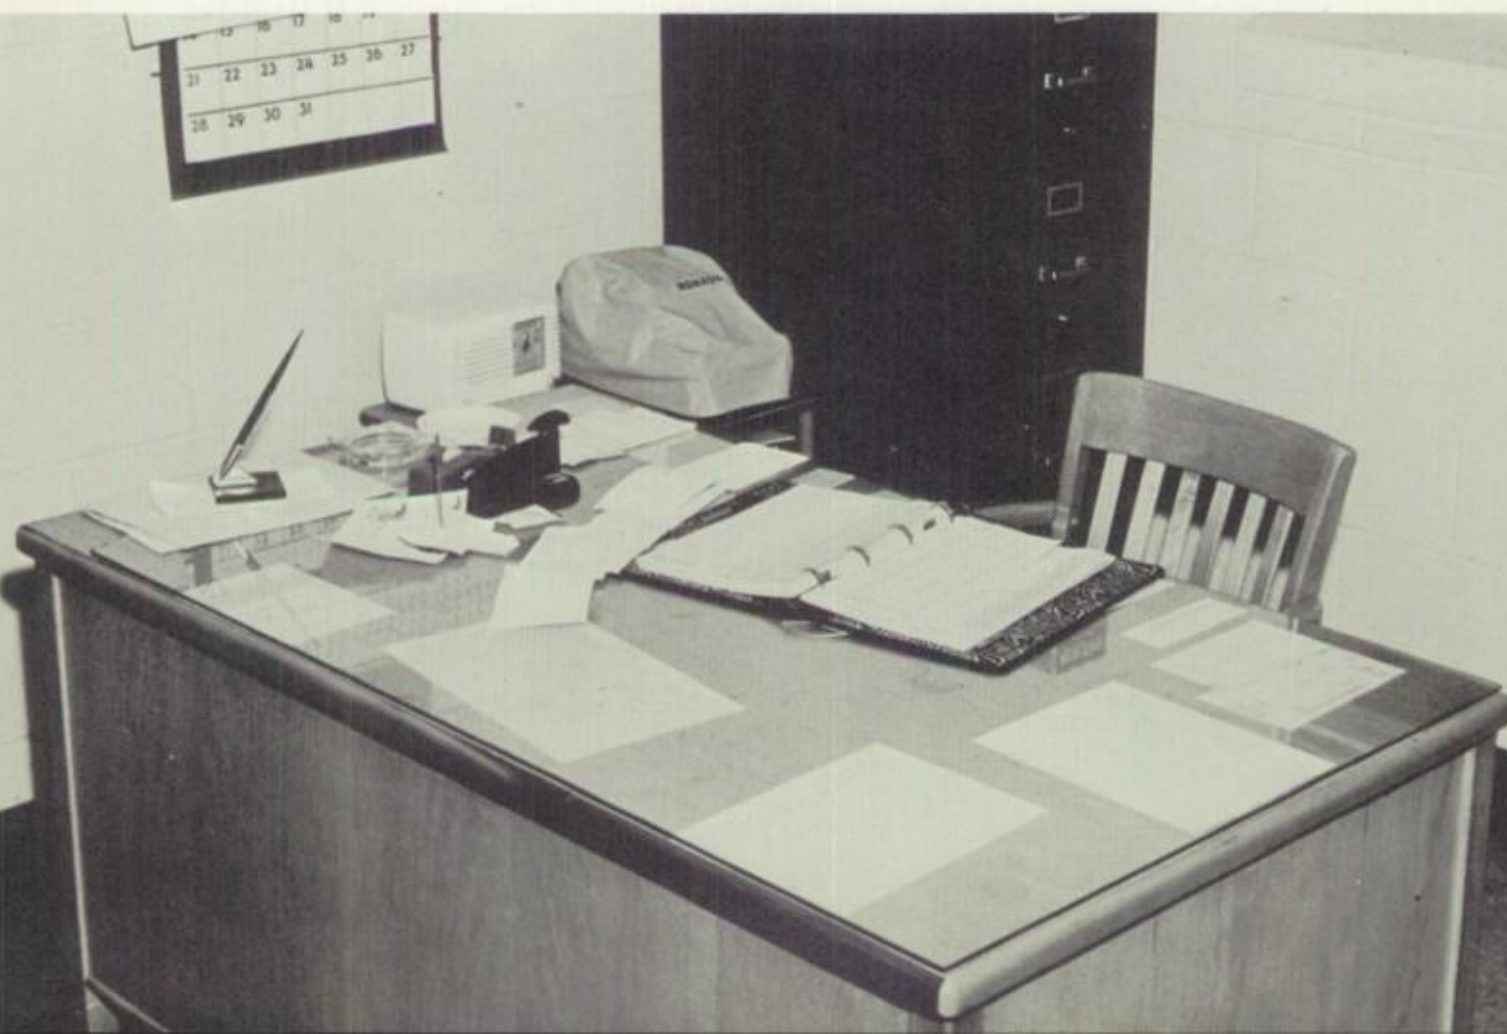

I know there's no trouble
In Heaven, that's true,
But if there were trouble
I know what You could do.

If trouble were brewing
And You hadn't time
To 'Balance the Budget'
Or to keep the books to the dime. . . .

To make this fund balance
And this fund to grow
And have an expert
And this much I know. . . .

He can also help trouble,
Hurt feelings he can repair.
You come from his office
Just "Walking on air."

He can make You so important,
Least that's how You feel
"Cause so long, so well,
He's been our "BALANCE WHEEL."

SPORTS

STATE CHAMPIONS

The Choctaw Yellowjacket football team ended a very successful 1960 season by winning the State Class "B" Championship. The "Jackets" had a 13 won and 1 loss record.

The Yellowjackets started the season with a disappointment. They lost their first game to Casady, a private school in Oklahoma City, 14-8. Casady led 6-0 at the half. In the fourth quarter Choctaw climaxed an 87 yard drive with Landis Denley running the last four yards for the TD to tie it up. Robert Temple plunged for the 2-point conversion to move Choctaw ahead. Casady retaliated with three minutes left on a pass from Casady quarterback Dale Mitchell to end Peter Russe for a TD and Mitchell converted to hand Casady the victory.

Choctaw, the pre-season pick to win the Central Conference Championship, opened its league play by edging Star-Spencer, 2-0. Choctaw scored only when Tim Adams tackled the Star-Spencer quarterback in the end zone for a safety.

Next the Yellowjackets visited Bethany. This was a conference game also as were the next four games the Jackets played. The "Jackets" swamped Bethany 38-6 with the entire backfield scoring TD's.

Choctaw captured both the conference and district titles by romping over the next four league opponents and averaging 54 points a game while the tough Choctaw defense held its opponents to an average of five points a game. The opponents were, in order: Dunjee, 60-6; Yukon, 52-8; Moore, 48-0; and Crooked Oak, 58-6.

After the "Jackets" had iced Moore they were ranked 10th in the State by "The Daily Oklahoman." They moved up to 7th place by whipping Crooked Oak.

The next game on the slate was with Tecumseh. The Yellowjackets handled this threat by romping over The Savages to the tune of 56-8 victory.

St. Mary's took on the potent eleven next but was the underdog as the "Jackets" rolled over them 64-12.

At this point Choctaw moved from 7th place in the prep grid poll to 3rd place.

A good Class A team, Henryetta, was the next opponent. The game was reported to be the real test for the Yellowjackets. The "Jackets" posted a 28-0 victory over Henryetta. The winning of this game boosted Choctaw into the No. 1 spot on The Daily Oklahoman final grid poll.

TROPHIES reaped along the field of success are the Bi-District, Central Conference and State Championship. The trophies are now displayed in the trophy case of the Choctaw Field House. Pictured along side the trophies is the football used in the final game.

OFFENSIVE TEAM members are pictured above as they looked to opposing teams. In the backfield are Landis Denley, Bob Temple, Jerry Murray and James Hutchinson. Linemen are Scott Ogee, Doug Martindale, Grant Curry, Gip Duggan, Carroll Elmore, Leroy Locke, and Tim Adams.

Choctaw entered the state playoffs with a 9-1 record. The Yellowjackets played a previously met foe, Tecumseh, in the first round. The "Jackets" posted a 70-8 victory over the Savages in their second meeting.

In the quarter-finals Choctaw visited Fairview. Fairview had beaten Cordell to advance to second round. The Yellowjackets came back after a first-quarter deficit of 6 points to tie it up 6-6 at half-time. With intermission over Choctaw scored once in the 3rd quarter while Fairview only tallied once in the final quarter to hand the "Jackets" their eleventh straight victory.

Choctaw's opponent in the semi-final game was Purcell, a 28-0 loser. Choctaw scored in every quarter to advance.

In the Championship match the Yellowjackets were slated to meet a tough Stigler eleven. Stigler had gained the finals by edging its opponent in the first round on first downs when the score was tied. In the second round Stigler was tied again but advanced because they held a 3-1 penetration edge. The third team they played was Hominy but Hominy went down by a score of 44-30.

With Choctaw scoring three times in the second quarter and once in the third and fourth before letting Stigler tally, Choctaw easily overcame Stigler 32-6, for the school's first State football championship.

COACHES of the State Champions are Bill Jensen, head coach, and Al Grinslade, assistant coach. The coaches molded the players from last season's Central Conference champs into State Champions.

Harold Cole scores a conversion during the Tecumseh game in the first round of the State playoffs.

First year of football at Nicoma Park was completed by this squad of 25 players, coached by Kyle Coffey. The Falcons in their first season failed to win a game but tied Star Spencer, a school that has been competing in football for several years.

Guiding the Falcons through the initial season were the coach, captains, and manager. From left to right Larry East, manager, John Conrad, captain, Kyle Coffey, coach, and Bill Shelby, captain.

The Choctaw basketball team lacking the height to be very powerful had a 1-9 record when the annual went to press.

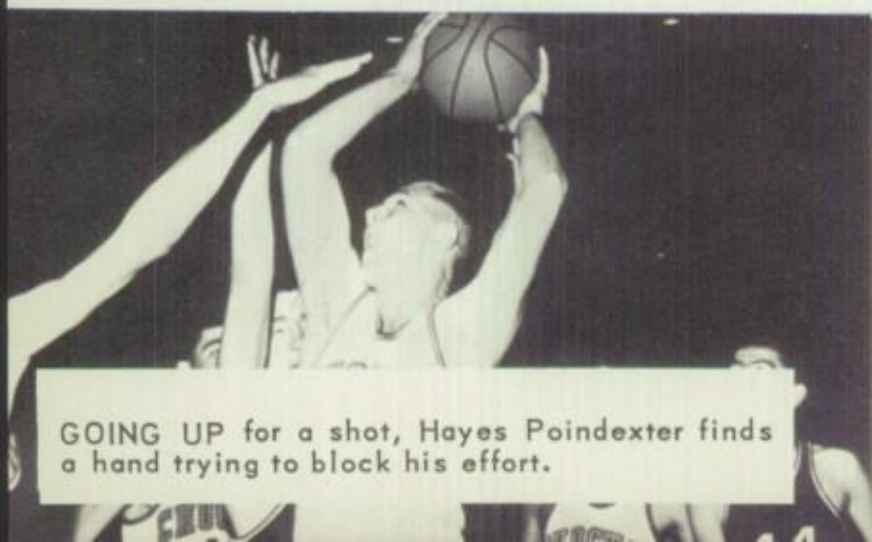

Choctaw started off the season with two straight wins. One win was over a long time rival, Harrah, 37-29. This game had to be forfeited because the 'Jackets' had played on ineligible player. In the second game Choctaw iced Dunjee, 49-34.

Choctaw played top-rated Purcell in two successive games. Purcell copped both games with scores of 49-29 and 56-17.

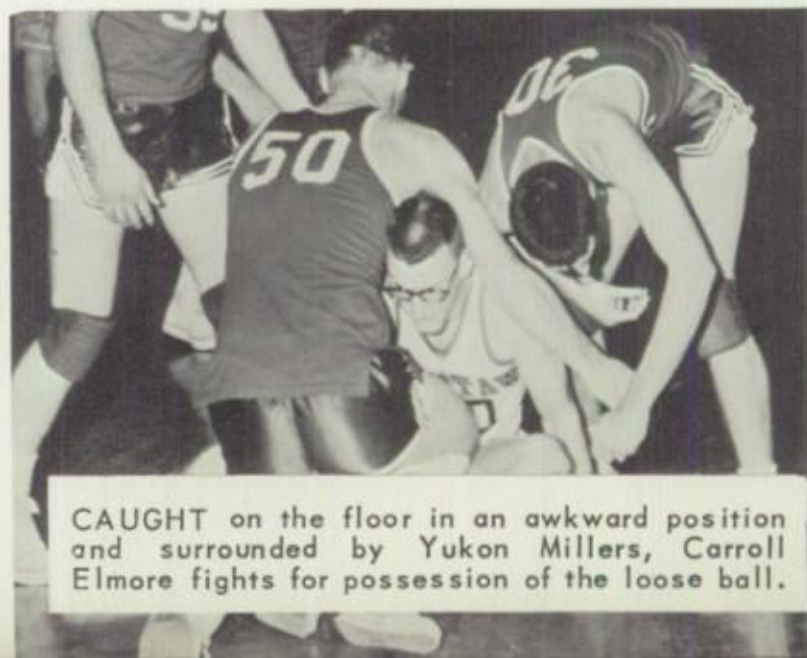

The 'Jackets' next played the league leader, Star Spencer. The 'Jackets' had a cold night and fell, 53-25.

Choctaw then visited Dunjee who revenged an earlier loss by downing the Choctaw five, 62-53.

The Yellowjackets suffered defeats by Yukon, 46-36, and Bethany, 53-47, in the following two games. Choctaw then played Crooked Oak back-to-back contests. The Ruf-Neks stymied a fourth quarter rally to win 36-40 in the first tilt. In the second encounter Crooked Oak hit 75% of its free shots to emerge winner 42-34.

GOING UP for a shot, Hayes Poindexter finds a hand trying to block his effort.

CAUGHT on the floor in an awkward position and surrounded by Yukon Millers, Carroll Elmore fights for possession of the loose ball.

Without support and interest the simplest of projects would collapse and fail to fulfill its purpose. This is certainly true of a project such as a high school annual.

The 1961 Yellowjacket sincerely extends thanks and appreciation to the sponsors and boosters of this publication for their support and interest in making the project of producing the book a SUCCESS.

Dearest Susan (Skipper)

I think that you are the best friend that I have. I hope that we can be friends always. I think that you are very cute and sweet. Always stay that way. I will miss you this summer. I wish that we could get together somehow. I hope that you will call me very often this summer.

I want to say that I have had a lot of fun with you this year. I hope that we can be together and have as much fun next year when we are "Seniors." I think that we are going to have a lot of fun next year. Just think we get to be Seniors next year, and get to go on the Senior trip. This is getting of the track I think. Susan I just can't express my deepest feeling for you on paper. I just can't find the words, but I think that you know how much I adore you. Susan I hope that you don't forget me. Well though I don't think you will. I hope that you and Johnny make out all right. I can't find anything else to write so I guess I will close.

May God Bless and keep you always
Love you Loads Bettie Lou
